About Workshop:

The Skill Enhancement Programme Awareness Session was conducted as per VTU directives to provide clarity on programme structure, benefits, and implementation. The session aimed to create awareness among students about the Skill Enhancement Programme offered by VTU COE (HMCS) as an alternative to internship. The workshop included presentations, interactive Q&A sessions, and clarification of programme

Background

- As per Revised Circular Ref No: VTU/MYS/VTU-COE/HMCS/69/2025-26 dated 04-11-2025, constituent, affiliated, and autonomous colleges were directed to conduct offline awareness sessions for the Skill Enhancement Programme offered by VTU COE (HMCS) in place of internship.

Objectives

- To create awareness among students about the Skill Enhancement Programme.
- To ensure participation of all eligible 7th semester students.
- To provide clarity on programme structure, benefits, and implementation.

Session Highlights

- Presentation on Skill Enhancement Programme structure and benefits.
- Interactive Q&A session with students.
- Clarification of programme guidelines and evaluation methods.

Feedback Summary:

KSIT successfully conducted the Skill Enhancement Programme Awareness Workshop on November 18, 2025 at the institute premises.

- The session was attended by 602 students from the 7th semester, along with faculty members.
- Participants gained valuable insights into the programme offered by VTU COE (HMCS) as an alternative to internship.

Outcomes

- Students gained awareness of the Skill Enhancement Programme as an alternative to internship.
- Queries regarding eligibility, credits, and evaluation were addressed.
- Positive feedback was received from students and faculty regarding the usefulness of the session.

Documentation Submitted

- Geo-tagged Photographs: Attached
- Revised Circular Ref No: VTU/MYS/VTU-COE/HMCS/69/2025-26 dated 04-11-2025 Attached
