VOLUNTEER'S DAY

DATE : 24/09/2025

VENUE : KSIT Quadrangle

ORGANIZED BY : NSS Unit of KSIT

DURATION : 10:30 A.M. to 4:00 P.M.

PARTICIPANTS : Principal and NSS Program Officer.

INCHARGE FACULTY : Mr. Naveen V Program Officer, KSIT.

OBJECTIVES :

- To recognize and appreciate the contributions of volunteers in community.
- To inspire students and youth to actively participate in social service and community development.
- To create awareness about the importance of volunteerism in addressing social and environmental issues.
- To encourage collaboration between institutions, organizations, and communities for sustainable growth.

SCOPE OF THE PROGRAM:

The Volunteer's Day program includes organizing activities that encourage participation in community service and highlight the spirit of selflessness and social responsibility. It can involve awareness campaigns, community clean-up drives, blood donation camps, tree plantation, charity events, and interactive sessions that inspire youth to engage in volunteerism. The program also provides a platform to recognize and honor the work of dedicated volunteers while motivating more individuals to take up service-oriented initiatives. By fostering collaboration between students, institutions, and local communities, the celebration of Volunteer's Day contributes to building a more responsible, compassionate, and sustainable society.

HISTORY OF VOLUNTEER'S DAY:

Volunteer's Day is observed to celebrate the spirit of giving and selfless service, honoring individuals who dedicate their time, skills, and energy for the welfare of others. The idea of such a day grew from the recognition that volunteers play a vital role in strengthening communities, supporting the needy, and addressing social challenges. Over the years, the day has become an important occasion for acknowledging the efforts of people engaged in diverse areas such as education, healthcare, environmental protection, disaster relief, cultural preservation, and community development. It reminds society of the silent yet powerful contribution of volunteers in building harmony and progress.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE DAY:

The Volunteer's Day program was observed with great enthusiasm and a spirit of selfless service, guided by Mr. Naveen V, NSS Programme Officer. The day began with the flag hoisting ceremony by Dr. Dilip Kumar K, Principal and Director of KSIT, which set a respectful and inspiring tone for the celebrations. Following this, an awareness speech by alumni NSS volunteers was delivered, sharing their personal experiences in community service, highlighting the significance of volunteerism, and motivating students to actively contribute to society. To engage the first-year NSS volunteers creatively, poster making and collage making competitions were organized, providing a platform for students to visually express their ideas on social responsibility, compassion, and community development. The program concluded with the flag de-hoisting ceremony by Dr. P. N. Sudha, Professor & HOD of the ECE Department, marking the end of the day's celebrations. Throughout the event, the participants demonstrated enthusiasm, respect, and commitment to the values of volunteerism, making the day both inspiring and memorable. The celebration successfully highlighted the importance of selfless service and encouraged students to actively participate in future community-oriented initiatives.
