OBJECTIVES :

- To celebrate the formation of Karnataka state on November 1, 1956.
- To promote and preserve the Kannada language and culture.
- To create unity among the people of Karnataka.
- To honor individuals contributing to the state's growth.
- To develop pride in Karnataka's heritage and achievements.
- To inspire youth to respect and promote Kannada.

SCOPE OF THE PROGRAM :

The significance of Kannada Rajyotsava lies in promoting the Kannada language, art, and rich cultural heritage of Karnataka. It aims to unite people under a common identity, spreading awareness about the state's history and achievements. The celebration honors those who contribute to society and inspires the younger generation to take pride in preserving and promoting Kannada traditions.

HISTORY OF THE DAY :

The history of Kannada Rajyotsava dates back to November 1, 1956, when all Kannada-speaking regions of southern India were merged to form a single state called Mysore State, which was later renamed Karnataka in 1973. This unification was the result of the States Reorganization Act, which reorganized states based on linguistic lines. Kannada Rajyotsava is celebrated every year to mark this important event, symbolizing the unity, pride, and cultural identity of Kannadigas. It honors the efforts of leaders and citizens who worked for the integration of all Kannada-speaking areas into one state.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE DAY :

The celebrations began with a melodious song composed by one of the NSS volunteers, beautifully portraying the rich culture and legacy of Karnataka. The formal program commenced with an invocation song rendered by an NSS volunteer, invoking divine blessings for the success of the event. This was followed by the welcoming of the chief guests and HODs of various departments, who were greeted with flower bouquets presented by Mr. Naveen, PO, NSS, KSIT. The Principal KSIT, Mr. Dilip Kumar K, then delivered an inspiring speech highlighting the significance of Kannada Rajyotsava and the importance of preserving the state's linguistic and cultural identity. Following this, Mr. R Rajgopal Naidu, President KS group of institution, addressed the gathering, speaking about the glorious history and the present development of Karnataka, emphasizing the progress achieved over the years. Mr. R Leela Shankar Rao, Secretary KS group of institution further shared his thoughts on the greatness, pride, and traditions of the state, encouraging everyone to uphold the values and customs of Karnataka.

The formal session was followed by the flag hoisting ceremony, accompanied by the singing of Nada Geethe by NSS volunteers, filling the atmosphere with pride and patriotism. The cultural segment of the program featured a series of mesmerizing performances, including three dances by KSIT NSS volunteers that highlighted the cultural diversity of Karnataka. Additionally, KSPUC students presented a graceful dance that celebrated the pride, glory, and beauty of the Kannada language. The performances showcased the deep-rooted traditions and artistic spirit of the state, leaving the audience enthralled. With this, the event concluded, and a delicious breakfast was served to all the guests, staff, and students.

Overall, the Kannada Rajyotsava celebration was a grand success, filled with enthusiasm, cultural pride, and unity. The event truly reflected the rich cultural essence of Karnataka and reminded everyone of their responsibility to preserve and promote the Kannada language and heritage.
